

Community and World

As a church we are committed to being in the community and for the community. Many members of St James are active in local groups and organisations.

At the same time we believe that we need to engage with people and issues on a global level. We therefore support the work of Christians all over the world.

Local Schools

Local Residential Homes

Worldwide Mission

Social Care